The Coil of Carne John Oxenham 2022-06-02 Coil and Carne is a work of fiction by English journalist, novelist, and poet William Arthur Dunkerley who wrote it under his famous pseudonym, John Oxenham. The book revolves around several themes and events such as inheritance and succession, identity, brotherhood, and the Crimean War. Dunkerley is best known for his 1897 crime fiction A Mystery of the Underground and as a founder of The Idler in February 1892 with Robert Barr, a monthly public interest magazine and one of the most popular during that period. Esoteric Orders and Their Work Dion Fortune 2000-10-01 Esoteric Orders and their Work examines how and why esoteric schools have restricted admission to their secret societies and orders, and shrouded their practices in mystery. Dion Fortune reveals every aspect of these secret organizations and the training they offer to initiates.

There is Not Any Black Hole Carlo Maria Pace 2016 In questo libro (scritto interamente in inglese) l'autore, partendo dall'equazione di campo di Einstein della Teoria della Relatività Generale, corregge la soluzione di Schwarzschild, e mostra che, nella soluzione corretta di Schwarzschild, non c'è alcun orizzonte degli eventi e perciò non c'è alcun buco nero. Inoltre, l'autore estende tutto ciò alle sue dirette conseguenze, in particolare correggendo la soluzione di Kerr, la soluzione di Reissner-Nordstrøm e la soluzione di Kerr-Newman. Poi, l'autore estende queste quattro soluzioni corrette (di Schwarzschild, di Kerr, di Reissner-Nordstrøm e di Kerr-Newman) anche al caso in cui la costante cosmologica è più grande di zero. D'altra parte, l'autore, partendo dalla forma generale dell'equazione di campo di Einstein della Teoria della Relatività Generale, dimostra anche in generale l'inesistenza di qualsiasi orizzonte degli eventi, e perciò l'inesistenza di qualsiasi buco nero, nel campo di applicazione della Teoria della Relatività Generale. Infine, l'autore esplora anche le conseguenze di tutto ciò sull'entropia dell'universo, sul processo di emissione di Hawking, sulla Teoria del Big Bang e sulle osservazioni astronomiche.

Fairy Tales from All Nations Anthony R. Montalba 2019-01-15 The time has been, but happily exists no longer, when it would have been necessary to offer an apology for such a book as this. In those days it was not held that Beauty is its own excuse for being; on the contrary, a spurious utilitarianism reigned supreme in literature, and fancy and imagination were told to fold their wings, and travel only in the dusty paths of every-day life. Fairy tales, and all such flights into the region of the supernatural, were then condemned as merely idle things, or as pernicious occupations for faculties that should be always directed to serious and profitable concerns. But now we have cast off that pedantic folly, let us hope for ever. We now acknowledge that innocent amusement is good for its own sake, and we do not affect to prove our advance in civilisation by our incapacity to relish those sportive creations of unrestricted fancy that have been the delight of every generation in every land from times beyond the reach of history. The materials of the following Collection have been carefully chosen from more than a hundred volumes of the fairy lore of all nations;

The Training & Work of an Initiate Dion Fortune 2000-11-01 The Training and Work of an Initiate shows how, from ancient Qabalistic, Greek, and Egyptian roots, the Western Esoteric Systems have an unbroken initiation tradition that has been handed down from adept to neophyte. In this book, Dion Fortune indicates the broad outlines and underlying principles of these systems, illuminating an obscure and greatly misunderstood aspect of the path. Thanks to her teaching, even if you cannot give your entire life over to the pursuit of esoteric science, you can still develop a philosophy of life and learn your individual relationship to the cosmic whole. You will discover how initiates prepare body, mind, and spirit for the challenging journey that is the esoteric path, what the path of initiation looks like, and what it is to be called to this work. The book is filled with accessible information, presented in a way so that "even that which the smallest cup can carry away is the true water of life". This revised edition contains a new foreword by Gareth Knight, and an index.

Heroines of Service Mary Rosetta Parkman 2022-06-03 "Heroines of Service" by Mary Rosetta Parkman is a compiled account of a few notable women in Europe. The service of the true woman is always "womanly." She gives something of the fostering care of the mother, whether it be a nurse, like Clara Barton; as teachers, like Maryix Lyon and Alice Freeman Palmer; or as a social helper, like Jane Addams. So it is that the service of these "heroines" is that which only women could have given to the world.

It was improbably chaired by Bindle and faithfully reported to us by a member of the club.

Visit us online at www.1stWorldLibrary.ORG - - INTERIOR freedom rests upon the principle of non-resistance to all the things which seem evil or painful to our natural love of self. But non-resistance alone can accomplish nothing good unless, behind it, there is a strong love for righteousness and truth. By refusing to resist the ill will of others, or the stress of circumstances, for the sake of greater usefulness and a clearer point of view, we deepen our conviction of righteousness as the fundamental law of life, and broaden our horizon so as to appreciate varying and opposite points of view. The only non-resistance that brings this power is the kind which yields mere personal and selfish considerations for the sake of principles. Selfish and weak yielding must always do harm. Unselfish yielding, on the other hand, strengthens the will and increases strength of purpose as the petty obstacles of mere self-love are removed. Concentration alone cannot long remain wholesome, for it needs the light of growing self-knowledge to prevent its becoming self-centred. Yielding alone is of no avail, for in itself it has no constructive power. But if we try to look at ourselves as we really are, we shall find great strength in yielding where only our small and private interests are concerned, and concentrating upon living the broad principles of righteousness which must directly or indirectly affect all those with whom we come into contact.

In the Avu Observatory (Cryptofiction Classics - Weird Tales of Strange Creatures) H. G. Wells 2015-02-16 This early work by H. G. Wells was originally published in 1894 and we are now republishing it with a brand new introductory biography as part of our Cryptofiction Classics series. 'In the Avu Observatory' is a short story of a man working in an observatory in Borneo who gets attacked by a strange bat-like creature. Herbert George Wells was born in Bromley, England in 1866. He apprenticed as a draper before becoming a pupil-teacher at Midhurst Grammar School in West Sussex. Some years later, Wells won a scholarship to the School of Science in London, where he developed a strong interest in biology and evolution, founding and editing the Science Schools Journal. However, he left before graduating to return to teaching, and began to focus increasingly on writing. It was in 1895 that Wells seriously established himself as a writer, with the publication of the now iconic novel, The Time Machine. Wells followed The Time Machine with the equally well-received War of the Worlds (1898), which proved highly popular in the USA. The Cryptofiction Classics series contains a collection of wonderful stories from some of the greatest authors in the genre, including Ambrose Bierce, Arthur Conan Doyle, Robert Louis Stevenson, and Jack London. From its roots in cryptozoology, this genre features bizarre, fantastical, and often terrifying tales of mythical and legendary creatures. Whether it be giant spiders, werewolves, lake monsters, or dinosaurs, the Cryptofiction Classics series offers a fantastic introduction to the world of weird creatures in fiction.

Following the tracks and studies conducted in the '70s by David William Davenport, has set new light on the events that led to the destruction of the city of Mohenjo Daro (Pakistan) and the disappearance of the Harappan civilization tying their story to submerged ruins discovered in the Indian Ocean and dated back to 10,000 years ago.
