The Altman Close Josh Altman 2019-04-02 Land the deals you want and develop your instincts with million-dollar negotiation techniques After selling over $3 Billion in real estate, including the most expensive one-bedroom house in history, Josh Altman, co-star of the hit show Million-Dollar Listing Los Angeles, wants to teach you the real estate sales and negotiation tactics that have made him one of America's top agents. Buying or selling a house, whether for a client or yourself, is one of the most important (and most stressful) deals anyone can make, demanding emotional intelligence and a solid set of negotiating skills. But by mastering the same techniques that sell multi-million-dollar homes in Bel Air and Beverly Hills, you can attract buyers and close deals on any property. Josh breaks down the art of real estate into three simple parts. First, he'll help you get business in the door during the Opening. Then he takes you step-by-step through the Work: everything between the first handshake and the last. And finally, the Close, the last step that ensures all your hard work pays off as you seal the deal. Learn how to open with a prospect, work the deal, close, open, and repeat Build and market your reputation, creating more sales opportunities Develop the traits of a closer in you and your team Drive the deal forward and get the best price for your property by creating desire, scarcity, and demand Successful real estate sales are driven by the same principles, whether they happen in the Hollywood Hills or just down the street. Josh wants to put those principles, and the techniques for applying them, in your hands. Learn them and discover what you can achieve.

29 Monster Real Estate Agents' Scripts & Tips Bob Bloom

2017-04-25 My first year in the real estate business, I was a Monster. It was the late 70's and a much different profession. I worked FSBO's, landed my first builder and really focused. I had a blast. I was a Monster and had an annual sales volume that first year of 2.5 million dollars. I could start this book from many directions. Starting at the fact that there was a time when 2.5 million made me a Monster, says it all. The business model has changed dramatically. That was a time when we had an industry award we called the "Million Dollar Club." Few of us attained it and if we did, it went on the business card. It was something to be proud of. Today, you may reach that volume as the co-listing agent on one Luxury Listing. That first year I was taught to get a shoebox and keep 3x5 cards in it with my clients' names and info. It was suggested that I arrange the files by phone number because we did not have databases, individual brands or any concept of how to build a business. No one had an assistant. What we did have was "The Book." All of the listings came out on Tuesday in a book. This huge book was dropped off at midnight and "WE" had the book. We could not share the book with our clients. That is what made us valuable. Without me, they had no information. It was a bit like "Ralph has the conch..." Re/Max was the first big thing to come along. Before that, Monster agents would secretly negotiate our "Split." I got up to 70% if I promised not to tell anyone. Many agents had a 50/50 split their whole career. When the Monsters learned they could pay RE/MAX a desk fee and keep their own money..... it changed everything. There was now a real incentive for forward thinkers to develop their own business model, within the real estate sales context. As they did, Gary Keller found them. Keller sought out the Monsters around the country and shared with all of us, what they had done to become one. In his book, The Millionaire Real Estate Agent, Keller taught us all how to run a business instead of sell houses. Now there are Monsters everywhere. Every community has some real estate agents that are running a business. The old 80/20 rule, no longer applies. In most communities, the Monsters are tipping the scales. The ratio is 90/10 in many MLS groups. There are new business models and strategies that are already proven. It no longer means that you are a great salesperson if you are a Monster. You are probably a great businessperson and are running your business, as one. I love how the best of the best, in our industry are so willing to share. They do not feel threatened. There is plenty for others. Most of them modeled another and they now wish you well. Though there were some interesting differences in their game plan, they had much in common. They shared with an open heart to me. I hope to do the same with you. The point of this book is not for you to be a Monster. Be one if you choose. The point is to share some strategies the Monsters use and see if some version of that, would improve your life. The goal is to continue on the path of improvement. Here are a few ways others have done so.

Death of the Traditional Real Estate Agent Craig Proctor 2015-03-20 We've all heard the stats and stories about how tough it is to make a profitable living in real estate without high (and often devastating) lifestyle costs, but what do you know about the super successful agents, those netting $500,000, $1 million, $3 million, or more a year selling real estate? What do you really know about how they think, what they do, and how they approach the business, most often rejecting the industry norms that enslave the average agent? The fact of the matter is, if your real estate business depends on you, you don't really have a business? you have a job. In stark contrast, these mega agents have true businesses built on turnkey systems and well-organized teams. There is no stopping this trend. More and more teams will come, garner more market share, and get paid premium fees at the same time working less and playing more than the typical agent. Inside these pages, we'll introduce you to sixteen of these super successful, highly profitable real estate team leaders who share the secrets of their rise to the top 1 percent of the entire industry, how they did it, and how you can copy your way to your own megasuccessful real estate business.
