In Sardinia Jeff Biggers 2023-05-16 "Mr. Biggers is an enthusiastic and erudite guide. Seeking out the past in local lore and in Sardinia's long and overlooked literary tradition, he returns the island to the center of our imaginative map of the Mediterranean." -- The Wall Street Journal "At last, a grand companion to the mysterious and enchanting island of Sardinia. Written with verve and love, In Sardinia is the book I'll be taking on future trips." -Frances Mayes, New York Times bestselling author of Under the Tuscan Sun Award-winning historian Jeff Biggers opens a new window into the hidden treasures of Sardinia in a groundbreaking travel narrative that crisscrosses one of the most enigmatic places in Italy After three decades of living and traveling in Italy, Jeff Biggers finally crossed over to Sardinia, uncovering a treasury of stories amid major archaeological discoveries rewriting the history of the Mediterranean. Based in the bewitching port of Alghero, guided through the island's rich and largely untranslated literature, he embarked on a rare journey around the island to experience its famed cuisine, wine, traditional rituals and thriving cultural movements. "Sardinia is something else. Enchanting spaces and distances to travel," D. H. Lawrence wrote in 1921. On the 100th anniversary of Lawrence's visit, Biggers opens a new window into the history of the island, chronicling how new archaeological findings have placed the island as one of the cradles of the Bronze Age. From the Neolithic array of Stonehenge-like dolmens and menhir stone formations to the thousands of Bronze Age "nuraghe" towers and burial tombs, the vastness of the uninterrupted cycles of civilizations and their architectural marvels have turned Sardinia into the Mediterranean's "open museum." Beyond its fabled beaches, reconsidering how its unique history and ways have shaped Italy and Europe today, Biggers explores how travelers must first understand Sardinia and its ancient and modern history to truly understand the rest of Italy. In the tradition of Mark Kurlansky's Basque History of the World, Peter Hessler's Oracle Bones: A Journey Through in China, and Frances Mayes' and Tim Parks' narratives on Italy, In Sardinia is a major new addition to travel writing and literature in Italy.

A Bibliography of East European Travel Writing on Europe Wendy Bracewell 2008-02-10 The bibliography volume of the three-volume East Looks West: East European Travel Writing in Europe collates travel writing published in book form by east Europeans travelling in Europe from ca. 1550 to 2000. It is intended as a fundamental research tool, collecting together travel writings within each national/linguistic tradition, and enabling comparative analysis of such material. It fills an important gap in the existing reference literature, both in western and east European languages, and will be of use to those working in the growing fields of comparative travel writing, regional and national identities, and postcolonialism. These texts exist in surprisingly large numbers, and include writings of high literary quality as well as of historical interest, but they have been relatively little studied as a genre. Much of this material is rare and difficult to find, even in national libraries. As a result, there are few bibliographical surveys of the literature of east European travel and self-representation, and none that are region-wide or comparative in scope. This is the third volume of a three-part set of East Looks West, Vol. 1 - An Anthology of East European Travel Writing on Europe; and Vol. 2 - A Comparative Introduction to East European Travel Writing on Europe.

Caught In-Between Petho Agnes Petho 2020-05-04 This collection of essays explores intermediality as a new perspective in the interpretation of the cinemas that have emerged after the collapse of the former Eastern bloc. As an aesthetic based on a productive interaction of media and highlighting cinema's relationship with the other arts, intermediality always implies a state of in-betweenness which is capable of registering tensions and ambivalences that go beyond the realm of media. The comparative analyses of films from Hungary, Romania, Poland, the Czech Republic, Bosnia and Herzegovina and Russia demonstrate that intermediality can be employed in this way as a form of introspection dealing with complex issues of art and society. Appearing in a variety of sensuous or intellectual modes, intermediality can become an effective poetic strategy to communicate how the cultures of the region are caught in-between East and West, past and present, emotional turmoil and more detached self-awareness. The diverse theoretical approaches that unravel this in-betweenness contribute to the understanding of intermedial phenomena in contemporary cinema as a whole.

Travels and Translations Alison Yarrington 2013-11-01 This volume explores the fascinating interactions and exchanges between British and Italian cultures from the early modern period to the present. It looks at how these exchanges were mediated through personal encounters, travel writings, and translations, involving a variety of protagonists: explorers, writers, poets, preachers, diplomats and tourists. In particular, this book examines the understanding of Italy as a destination and set of locations, each with their own distinctive geographical character, during a period which saw the creation of the modern Italian state. It also charts the shifts in travelling activity during this period, from early explorers and cartographers, via those taking part in the Grand Tour in the 18th and 19th centuries, to more modern poet-travellers and blogging tourists. Drawing upon literary studies, history, art history, cultural studies, translation studies, sociology and socio-linguistics, this volume takes a cross-disciplinary approach to its rich constellation of 'cultural transactions'.

Lucidity Ian James 2016-05-20 This collection of essays addresses the question of lucidity as a thematic in literature and film but also as a quality of both expression and insight in literary criticism and critical thought more generally. The essays offer treatments of lucidity in itself and in relation to its opposites, forms of obscurity and darkness. They offer attention to problems of philosophical thought and reason, to questions of literary and poetic form, and of photographic and filmic contemplation. Ranging from engagements with early modern writing through to more recent material the contributions focus in particular on nineteenth- and twentieth-century French prose and poetry, the field which has been the predominant focus of Alison Finch's critical writing. They are written as tributes to the distinctively lucid insights of her work and to the breadth and clarity of its intellectual engagement.

L'uomo in oro Roberto Giardina 2023-03-01 Una vita come una favola, Friedrich Minoux (1877-1945), figlio di un sarto di paese, orfano a quindici anni, ha un talento straordinario per gli affari, viene pagato due volte il suo peso in marchi oro durante la disastrosa inflazione della Repubblica di Weimar, quando un uovo arriva a costare dieci miliardi, i tedeschi hanno fame, e Friedrich diventa ricchissimo. Ma con il denaro non potrà avere la donna che ama. Rifiuta di aiutare Hitler, i nazisti confiscano la sua villa sul lago a Berlino, dove Eichmann tiene nel gennaio del 1942 la conferenza per lo sterminio degli ebrei. Finisce in carcere, fino alla sconfitta del Terzo Reich, e il mago della finanza, l'uomo d'oro, morirà di fame.

Nell'acquario 2 Danilo Coppola 2013-01-08 Secondo episodio della Saga di Nico Cordola ( il primo , Nell'acquario, è stato di recente ripubblicato sempre da youcanprint), eroe antieroe di matrice salentina che conserva la propria ingenuità provinciale con cui osserva il mondo con originale disincanto ironico, a tratti sarcastico, Nell'acquario 2, narra le vicende dell'alter ego letterario dell'autore, che lavora come arredatore in una multinazionale del milanese, attività che gli fornisce un osservatorio antropologico privilegiato da cui guarda ai cambiamenti di un paese, come l'Italia, che continua a pensare di poter andare sulla luna in groppa da un asino. Nico Cordola si muove fra Milano ed Ostuni, suo paese di origine, dove torna a trovare i suoi anziani genitori, di quando in quando, e in questo suo peregrinare fra due autentici poli opposti del paese si imbatte in un campionario umano ed esistenziale che fornisce la cifra di un paese sostanzialmente monolitico , abbarbicato ai privilegi di sempre e incapace di confrontarsi con la modernità.

Martin Scorsese's America Ellis Cashmore 2013-05-08 For over four decades, Martin Scorsese has been the chronicler of an obsessive society, where material possessions and physical comfort are valued, where the pursuit of individual improvement is rewarded and where male prerogative is respected and preserved. Scorsese has often described his films as sociology and he has a point: his storytelling condenses complex information into comprehensible narratives about society. In this sense, he has been a guide through a dark world of nineteenth century crypto-fascism to a fetishistic twentieth century in which goods, fame, money and power are held to have magical power. Author of Tyson: Nurture of the Beast and Beckham, Ellis Cashmore turns his attention to arguably the most influential living film-maker to explore how Scorsese envisions America. Greed, manhood, the city and romantic love feature on Scorsese's landscape of secular materialism. They are among the themes Cashmore argues have driven and inform Scorsese's work. This is America, as seen through the eyes of Martin Scorsese and it is a deeply unpleasant place. Cashmore's book discloses how, collectively, Scorsese's films present an image of America. It's an image assembled from the perspectives of obsessive people, whether burned-out paramedics, compulsive entrepreneurs, tortured lovers, or celebrity-fixated comedians. It's collected from pool halls, taxicabs, boxing rings and jazz clubs. It's an image that's specific, yet ubiquitous. It is Martin Scorsese's America.

Dreamscapes in Italian Cinema Francesco Pascuzzi 2015-01-21 This book explores the oneiric in Italian cinema from filmic representations and visualizations of dreams, nightmares, hallucinations, and dream-like and hypnotic states, to dreams as cinematic allegories and metaphors and the theoretical frameworks applied to the investigation of this relationship.

Movie Lists Paul Simpson 2011-05-26 Action, African greats, alcohol, Robert Aldrich, aliens, Woody Allen, Pedro Almodovar, Robert Altman, animated, anime, apocalypses, Argentina, art, Asia minor, avant garde... And that's just A for you. A taste of this fabulously quirky and enjoyable book which is both a celebration of movies - and movie trivia - and a handy, entertaining guide to films that we know you will enjoy. It is fantastically functional. The lists are well conceived and easy to understand - mostly assembled by genre, actor, director, theme or country of origin - and the reviews are witty and informative. Oddly enough, most movie guides are not full of recommendations. But Movie Lists is, in spades, leaving readers in no doubt that the films reviewed are the business. Oh - and you don't have to watch them all before you die. There is no premise of death in this book. You just need to get down to the local Blockbusters or flick your remote to Movies on Demand. Only the popcorn is not supplied.

English Travel Writing From Pilgrimages To Postcolonial Explorations NA NA 2019-06-12 Travel writing has gained new appeal, and writers from the British Isles have been particularly productive and successful in this genre. This volume provides a concise introduction to the basic characteristics and historical development of travel writing as it has emerged in the British Isles from the Middle Ages to the present day. Examples considered include many classics such as Defoe, Sterne and Smollett, Isabella Bird and Mary Kingsley, Chatwin and Raban, and also lesser known representatives. Types of travel writing discussed include pilgrims' itineraries, exploration writing, tourist accounts as well as postmodern varieties. Beyond the Traveller's Gaze Giorgia Alù 2008 This book offers a stimulating analysis of three non-canonical texts in different genres written by British women who lived in Sicily in the second half of the nineteenth and the beginning of the twentieth centuries. These texts cover a series of crucial political events as well as social and cultural changes which affected the history of Sicily during the period in question, all seen through the direct and indirect experiences of the authors. The book offers a historical perspective on the late-Victorian and Edwardian representations of post-Unification Italy. At the same time the author challenges current critical literature on travel writing which tends to analyse travel texts without making substantial distinction between works written during a brief visit to a foreign country and those produced during a long-term or permanent residence. The book adopts an interdisciplinary, comparative approach. The three texts are studied by looking at patterns of connection in other written and visual works produced during, or after, an experience in Italy. By drawing on theories of travel writing, genre and gender, along with visual and cultural studies, the author aims to verify how the three texts respond to being analysed as a distinct group, and hence define the specific roles and functions of expatriate women's writing.

Grammatica russa Claudia Cevese 2020-08-12T00:00:00+02:00 La nuova edizione della Grammatica russa, testo di riferimento che presenta un'analisi completa delle strutture della lingua, è stata ampliata e rivista alla luce dei profondi cambiamenti sia nella lingua russa sia nelle esigenze didattiche. L'opera si articola ora in due volumi, uno dedicato alla parte teorica e l'altro a quella esercitativa. Il volume di teoria offre una trattazione sistematica degli argomenti della morfologia, ognuno dei quali viene svolto in modo esauriente, indicando il grado di competenza linguistica prevista. Tutti i temi grammaticali sono inoltre integrati da numerosi esempi, il cui lessico è stato aggiornato recependo i neologismi entrati in uso e le trasformazioni socioculturali, nonché ampliando la gamma dei registri linguistici. Il metodo contrastivo della trattazione dà rilievo ai vari casi in cui le forme grammaticali russe e italiane si differenziano, mentre la gradualità dell'apprendimento è stata adeguata alla scala dei livelli previsti dalle certificazioni in linea con il Quadro Comune Europeo di Riferimento per le Lingue.

Atlas of Emotion Giuliana Bruno 2018-07-10 An award-winning cultural history of how we experience the world through art, film and architecture Atlas of Emotion is a highly original endeavor to map the cultural terrain of spatio-visual arts. In an evocative blend of words and pictures, Giuliana Bruno emphasizes the connections between "sight" and "site" and "motion" and "emotion." In so doing, she touches on the art of Gerhard Richter and Louise Bourgeois, the filmmaking of Peter Greenaway and Michelangelo Antonioni, media archaeology and the origins of the museum, and her own journeys to her native Naples. Visually luscious and daring in conception, Bruno's book opens new vistas and understandings at every turn.

Almanacco del vagabonding Rolf Potts 2023-10-20T00:00:00+02:00 «Ogni giorno è un viaggio, e il viaggio è casa». Rolf Potts, autore di un classico della letteratura di viaggio come Vagabonding, ha scelto questo pensiero apparentemente paradossale di Matsuo Bashō per darci il benvenuto e invitarci a scoprire, giorno dopo giorno, il bello del viaggiare. A questo scopo, Potts ha selezionato 366 pensieri d'autore tratti da saggi, romanzi, diari, reportage, e li ha commentati per offrirci il suo punto di vista, stimolare le nostre riflessioni e, perché no, seguirlo sulla strada della meditazione, all'insegna di un pensiero che non possiamo non condividere: «Viaggiare non è solo un pretesto per ammirare panorami e fare esperienze che prima vivevamo solo nella nostra immaginazione; è un'occasione per sperimentare nuove versioni di sé stessi entrando in relazione con nuovi luoghi». Un modo speciale per tornare sempre, in un certo senso, a casa.

Letitia Elizabeth Landon and Metrical Romance Serena Baiesi 2010 Letitia Elizabeth Landon (1802-1838) was one of the leading women poets of the second generation of English Romantic writers. Following her predecessor Walter Scott and her contemporary Lord Byron, she was a fluent practitioner and essential innovator of the metrical romance and exerted a strong influence on the work of Victorian poets (especially Elizabeth Barrett Browning, Robert Browning and Christina Rossetti). This book analyses Landon's poetics, with particular reference to the close relationship between the narrative poem as literary genre and its gender implications. Landon was both an eclectic writer and a literary businesswoman: she was an extremely effective promoter of her literary work in order to support her independent life in London. Furthermore she was the editor of several annuals and gift-books, wrote for magazines, and published numerous poems, novels, and editorials. Her active life and mysterious and premature death in Africa attracted the curiosity of many biographers during the twentieth century, but only in recent times has critical attention been paid to her rich literary output. This volume aims to discuss and analyse the work of a talented artist whose metrical romance strongly influenced the poetics of late Romanticism, and prefigured a highly successful genre widely adopted during the Victorian age: the dramatic monologue.

Women and Migration in Contemporary Italian Cinema Giovanna Faleschini Lerner 2022-10-15 Women and Migration in Contemporary Italian Cinema: Screening Hospitality puts gender at the centre of cinematic representations of contemporary transnational Italian identities. It offers an intersectional feminist analysis of the ways in which transnational migration has been represented, understood, and constructed in the contemporary cinema of Italy. Drawing on Jacques Derrida's notion of hospitality and in dialogue with postcolonial and decolonial theory, queer studies, and feminist critiques, the six chapters of the book focus on a series of exemplary fiction films from the last twenty years, which both reflect and shape the nation's responses to the growing presence of transnational migrants in Italian society. The book shows how questions of gender, sexual difference, and reproductivity have been central to Italian filmmakers' approaches to stories of mobility and displacement. Gender is also enmeshed in the rhetoric and poetic of hospitality that filmmakers propose as a critical framework to condemn Italian border policies and politics. Women and Migration in Contemporary Italian Cinema: Screening Hospitality traces an arc that moves from the embrace of a humanitarian rhetoric of infinite hospitality toward migrants, apparent in films produced in the early 2000s, to a more fluid understanding of Italian identities from a transnational perspective.
