Medicine Upside Down Giorgio Mambretti 2013-03-01 Dr Hamer is a highly controversial figure: his patients love him, yet other doctors want to block him, and meanwhile he gathers acknowledgements, but at the same time he is put on trial as well. Many believe that most of the opposition against him is because his theories -- and above all his long list of patients who have been healed -- go completely against established medicine... How can it be that diseases like cancer can simply be an attempt of the brain to fix (which means to heal) some emotional traumas? And that identifying such traumas and solving them can equate to healing the body? This is the only book available in Italy which is really up-to-date and comprehensive, very clear and supported by some brilliant cartoons: all these qualities have turned it into a real best seller. At long last a book on Dr Hamers new Germanic Medicine that is both really easy-to-read and comprehensive. Approach these controversial, yet fascinating theories with objectivity and open-mindedness.

The Wolf Man's Magic Word Nicolas Abraham 2005-10-01 An innovative literary analysis of Freud's "Wolf Man."

Clinical Dermatology Richard B. Weller 2015-01-27 The best-selling text has been completely revised and revitalised in this fifth edition, with the authors once again encouraging general practitioners, medical students, general physicians and early stage dermatology specialist trainees and interns to relish the unique challenge of diagnosing and treating skin conditions. Clinical Dermatology, 5th edition contains over 400 high quality pictures and diagrams combined with colourful phrases to illustrate and entertain as it teaches. The book has established a reputation as a 'way of learning' and as an accessible guide to the subject for the aspiring specialist. Readers are guided through the maze that too often lies between the presenting skin complaint and its final diagnosis and treatment. The authors have skilfully crafted an easily read text with enough detail to clarify the subject, but not enough to obscure it. This fifth edition contains new chapters on non-invasive physical treatment and dermoscopy, and new material on cosmetic dermatology, surgical dermatology, the skin and the psyche, and dermatoses of non-Caucasian skin. The text throughout the book has been updated in line with developments in the science and practice of dermatology. "... brilliantly succeeds in enticing you to look further. The writing is clear, and the joint British-American authorship avoids any parochial views." From a review of a previous edition in BMJ "...a very well-presented book...an excellent aid for teaching. I recommend this book highly to individuals and departments." From a review of a previous edition in J Derm Treatment "... provides a good overview of the structure and function of the skin as well as a good foundation for learning dermatology...well organized and includes a chapter dedicated to skin signs of systemic disease which is not covered in the other dermatology primers.” From a review of a previous edition in JAMA

Meret Oppenheim Meret Oppenheim 2017 Meret Oppenheim (1913-1985) is one of the most recognized twentieth-century artists: an almost legendary figure able to stand out on a mainly male-dominated Surrealist art scene while developing her own highly personal artistic practice. This catalogue presents her entire career, from the 1930s to her late works. It thus reveals the intense personal and creative network of relationships she nurtured with her older and often already famous peers during her time in Paris: Man Ray, Marcel Duchamp, Max Ernst, Alberto Giacometti, Hans Arp and others are also documented in this publication through some of their most significant works. What emerges, above all, is the extent to which the artist influenced, thanks to her personality and allure, the Surrealist vocabulary in which objects turn into fetishes, oneiric and erotic fantasies intermingle, and women are seen as innocent or evil, enveloped in mysterious nature. After the war, Meret Oppenheim conducted her investigations - ranging from figurativism to abstraction, from assemblage to painting - while eluding all attempts at categorization. Her creative freedom and the extraordinary evocative power of her works have made her a key figure for many generations of artists, as can be seen here through parallels with creations by Daniel Spoerri, Birgit Jørgensen, Robert Gober and Mona Hatoum.

Night Fever Mateo Kries 2018-03-17 A history of the nightclub from Studio 54 to the Double Club Nightclubs and discothèques are hotbeds of contemporary culture. Throughout the 20th century, they have been centres of the avant-garde that question the established codes of social life and experiment with different realities, merging interior and furniture design, graphics and art with sound, light, fashion and special effects to create a modern Gesamtkunstwerk. Night Fever: A Design History of Club Culture examines the history of the nightclub, with examples ranging from Italian nightclubs of the 1960s that were created by members of the Radical Design group to the legendary Studio 54 in New York, Philippe Starck's Les Bains Douches in Paris and the more recent Double Club in London, conceived by German artist Carsten Höller for the Prada Foundation. Featuring films and vintage photographs, posters and fashion, Night Fever takes the reader on a fascinating journey through a world of glamour, subculture and the search for the night that never ends.

The Meat Crisis Joyce D'Silva 2017-08-23 Meat and dairy production and consumption are in crisis. Globally, 70 billion farm animals are used for food production every year. It is well accepted that livestock production is a major contributor to greenhouse gas emissions. The Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO) predicts a rough doubling of meat and milk consumption in the first half of the 21st century, with particularly rapid growth occurring in the developing economies of Asia. What will this mean for the health and wellbeing of those animals, of the people who consume ever larger quantities of animal products, and for the health of the planet itself? The new edition of this powerful and challenging book explores the impacts of the global growth in the production and consumption of meat and dairy, including cultural and health factors, and the implications of the likely intensification of farming for both small-scale producers and for animals. Several chapters explore the related environmental issues, from resource use of water, cereals and soya, to the impact of livestock production on global warming and issues concerning biodiversity, land use and the impacts of different farming systems on the environment. A final group of chapters addresses ethical and policy implications for the future of food and livestock production and consumption. Since the first edition, published in 2010, all chapters have been updated, three original chapters re-written and six new chapters added, with additional coverage of dietary effects of milk and meat, antibiotics in animal production, and the economic, political and ethical dimensions of meat consumption. The overall message is clearly that we must eat less meat to help secure a more sustainable and equitable world.

Franco Fontana Corrado Benigni 2018 La riflessione sul paesaggio è il fulcro dell'immaginario poetico di Franco Fontana, la cui opera è da sempre tesa a mostrare l'enigma dell'invisibile che si cela nel visibile. La fotografia, infatti, è lo strumento attraverso il quale egli coglie l'inesistente di ciò che è reale, sempre in bilico tra rappresentazione del vero e il cosiddetto vero. Il lavoro di Fontana rappresenta dunque un'analisi sul vedere inteso come attività immaginativa e conoscitiva: le sue intenzioni non si limitano alla documentazione dell'aspetto dei luoghi o delle figure che immortala, né a un'idea di immagine solo quale oggetto estetico. Al contrario, egli propone una riflessione che, pur tenendo conto della realtà, contempla anche una rivalutazione della percezione attraverso la fotografia.

The Terrorization of Dissent Jason Del Gandio 2014-06-30 In 2006 the Animal Enterprise Terrorism

Act (AETA) was passed with the intention to equip law enforcement agencies with the tools to apprehend, prosecute, and convict individuals who commit "animal enterprise terror." But, as many have come to realize, this act does not concretely define what is meant by that phrase, leading to the interpretation that anyone interfering with a company's ability to make a profit from the exploitation of animals can be considered a terrorist. In this unprecedented and timely collection, some of the most influential voices in the world of law and animal rights examine the legalities of the AETA, highlight its repressive nature and the collusion between private interests and political legislation, and provide theoretical frameworks for understanding a variety of related issues. In a series of interviews, the book also gives animal advocates who have been convicted or directly affected by the AETA, including members of the AETA 4 and SHAC 7, an opportunity to speak for themselves. Ultimately, these writers show that the AETA is less about fighting terrorism and more about safeguarding corporate profit, and that it should be analyzed and resisted by everyone who believes in a better world. Barber Couture Giulia Pivetta 2015-03 A revival is now under way of the aesthetic deriving from the fashions of the 20th century's youth cultures and subcultures. The period in which these trends were distinguished by political or social connotations has now come to an end, and it is simply the stylistic elements that are dominant today: reworked, improved and hybridized to develop an innovative aesthetic canon with evident historical roots in the pop culture with which to identify and, above all, be identified. The impetus comes from the young and not so young men of the 21st century, affluent, carefree travellers, professionally fulfilled, vain, hedonistic and sexually uninhibited.

The UV Advantage Michael Holick 2005-05 One of the nation's leading experts on vitamin D proclaims the critically demonstrated benefits of sensible sun exposure on bone, cellular, organ, autoimmune, and mood-related health, and shows readers how to harness the power of the sun for their health.

Water for Unity Masaru Emoto 2015-06-15 This book is connected to a worldwide movement which is going to organise several large international events in 2016, as they already did in 2015. The essayists themselves are part of this movement and readers can join too. They will experiment, for instance, with using intention to lower the radioactivity level of Fukushima's water. It is a very young movement but one that has already generated much interest. This is a collection of short essays from 17 very well-known authors who have a solid scientific background or renown within their ancestral traditions. What they have in common is that each one, within their discipline, is aiming to use water's molecular structure and memory to improve our world.

Ladies' Haircults Giulia Pivetta 2017-02 Women's hairstyles have changed dramatically over the past century. Charting the progression from styles dictated by fashion and tradition towards more unique and individualised looks, this book explores how the history of women's hair in the west corresponds with their liberation over the course of the 1900s. Refined illustrations, era-specific photographs, and contemporary images tell the story of the hairstyles and fashion trends that flourished between 1940 and 1980, as well as those in vogue today. The volume closes with a section dedicated to the most famous hairstylists and salons de coiffeur, past and present.

We Are Family Fabio Bartolomei 2019-01-08 “Zanily inventive . . . This deeply eccentric comedy belongs in the company of the best novels about wildly precocious kids” (The Seattle Times). Al Santamaria is a child prodigy, maybe a genius. It is not out of the realm of possibility that he, alone, will save the human race. But first, he has to solve a far more urgent problem: finding a home for his family. He exists, like many kids, in a realm located somewhere between reality and fantasy, enjoying time with imaginary friends and wielding his magical powers. He has a wonderful relationship with his father, Mario Elvis, and his mother, Agnese, and he’s convinced he has the best family in the world. But life isn’t all roses for the Santamaria family. They are typical of many Italian families today, whose existences seem suspended between conflicting impulses: on the one hand, delusions of grandeur and immoderate ambition, and on the other nostalgia for a past golden age and the secret wish that somebody, anybody, will come to their rescue. Big dreams, it appears, exist to be crushed. But Al is not about to give up. He lives in a marvelous world of his own. He has the energy, imagination, and unselfconscious talents of a child. And, although he doesn't know it yet, he is going to remain a child his entire life. "An extended, guffaw-inducing, and sometimes tragic trip through Al's young life. It reads like an Italian sitcom." —Foreword Reviews "An amazing novel: it'll move you and make you laugh." —Elle "A plot shot through with the richness of Italian comedy and bright irony." —La Repubblica

Egypt's Sunken Treasures Franck Goddio 2008 In the shallow waters of Aboukir Bay off the coast of Egypt, the ruins of three ancient cities-Alexandria, Heraklion, and Canopus-lie along with valuable clues to the way their citizens lived and worshipped. The French underwater archaeologist Franck Goddio discovered these relics, which include statuary, jewelry, pediments, stone tablets, and fragments of buildings, all lost for nearly two thousand years. In addition to remarkable photographs of the excavation process, this illuminating volume connects the artifacts to the lives of Helen of Troy, Cleopatra, and Mark Anthony. It discusses the interactions among the three cities, between Egyptians and ancient Greeks, and the influences each civilization had on the other. An exciting volume for anyone interested in ancient history, this richly illustrated book is the most comprehensive examination to date on the excavation of the lost cities below Aboukir Bay. An updated and revised edition, this book features photographs and images from a landmark underwater excavation that changed the maps of history. AUTHOR: Franck Goddio is founder and president of the European institute for Underwater Archaeology in Paris. He is the author of many books and scientific articles, and has been the subject of numerous television documentaries. ILLUSTRATIONS: 600 colour illustrations
