The Art and Architecture of Herbert B. Turner Michael Gosney 2008 "Turner's unique path combined the rigorous discipline of the West Point Military Academy, an intensive artistic education under New York master painters, and an architectural apprenticeship with John Lloyd Wright. His work has been characterized by a deep ecological sensibility and regionalist outlook, a commitment to community, social activism, and a love of people. The Originality of the Avant-Garde and Other Modernist Myths Rosalind E. Krauss 1986-07-09 Co-founder and co-editor of October magazine, a veteran of Artforum of the 1960s and early 1970s, Rosalind Krauss has presided over and shared in the major formulation of the theory of postmodernism. In this challenging collection of fifteen essays, most of which originally appeared in October, she explores the ways in which the break in style that produced postmodernism has forced a change in our various understandings of twentieth-century art, beginning with the almost mythic idea of the avant-garde. Krauss uses the analytical tools of semiology, structuralism, and poststructuralism to reveal new meanings in the visual arts and to critique the way other prominent practitioners of art and literary history write about art. In two sections, "Modernist Myths" and "Toward Postmodernism," her essays range from the problem of the grid in painting and the unity of Giacometti's sculpture to the works of Jackson Pollock, Sol Lewitt, and Richard Serra, and observations about major trends in contemporary literary criticism.

Rodin's Art the late Albert E. Elsen 2003-03-13 The late Albert Elsen was the first American scholar to study seriously the work of the French sculptor Auguste Rodin, and the person most responsible for a revival of interest in the artist as a modern innovator--after years during which the sculpture had been dismissed as so much Victorian bathos. After a fortuitous meeting with the financier, philanthropist, and art collector B. Gerald Cantor, Elsen helped Cantor to build up a major collection of Rodin's work. A large part of this collection, consisting of more than 200 pieces, was donated to the Stanford Museum by Mr. Cantor, who died recently. In size it is surpassed only by the Musée Rodin in Paris and rivaled only by the collection in Philadelphia. In scope the collection is unique in having been carefully selected to present a balanced view of Rodin's work throughout his life. Rodin's Art encompasses a lifetime's thoughts on Rodin's career, surveying the artist's accomplishments through the detailed discussion of each object in the collection. It will begin with essays on the formation of the collection, the reception of Rodin's work, and his casting techniques. The entries that follow are arranged topically and include extensive discussions of Rodin's major projects.

Treasures of Art Nouveau Michel Draguet 1999 An extremely rich Belgian collection of Art Nouveau articles is behind the adventure leading to the conceiving of this book. Michel Draguet, in eight reference-filled chapters, guides the reader through the period between the end of the last century and the beginning of the present one, the herald of deep changes inspiring an art which, stemming from the symbolist and decadent instances, unfolds like a page of literature. The articles of applied arts figuring in the book have the flavor of the poetry of Baudelaire and Mallarme, recall the microcosm of Proustian interiors and take us back to an atmosphere steeped in the contributions of several arts, from dance to painting and sculpture, wherein the search for new techniques clearly does not play merely a minor role. Between literature and industry, a portent of the new century striding in, "Treasures of Art Nouveau" gives us back the savor of a world fully aware of the winds of change. Michel Draguet, Doctor in Philosophy and Literature and Agrége in Philosophy and Literature. Professor at the Université libre de Bruxelles and qualified researcher at the Fonds National de la Recherche Scientifique. Expert in the history of turn-of-the-century painting. Curator of several exhibitions and author and co-author of books, among which: "Bruxelles fin de siècle" (Paris, Flammarion, 1994); "Khnopff ou l'ambigu poétique" (Paris, Flammarion, 1995 - The 1996 Arthur Merghelynck Award of the Royal Academy of Belgium); "Mendelson" (Brussels, 1995); "Chronologie de l'art du XXe siècle" (Paris, Flammarion, 1997) and "Rops Cabinet de dessins" (Paris, 1998). Editor of the writings on art by Baudelaire and Mallarmé.

Masterpieces of the J. Paul Getty Museum: Decorative Arts Charissa Bremer-David 1997-11-13 This beautifully illustrated work brings together more than one hundred objects from the J. Paul Getty Museum's collection of European decorative arts. Included here is a generous selection of French and Italian furniture from the mid-sixteenth to the early nineteenth century. Masterpieces by André-Charles Boulle, Bernard (II) van Risenburgh, and others reveal the virtuoso craftsmanship that makes these objects such compelling examples of the furniture maker's art. Many of the Museum's finest pieces of porcelain, glass, and tin-glazed earthenware are also represented. Tapestries from Gobelins and Beauvais, bronze firedogs from Fontainebleau, and a lathe-turned ivory goblet of astonishing complexity from Saxony are among the other highlights of this handsome volume.

The Masculine Eros Robert B. Snellgrove 2018-10-24 The Masculine Eros dares to ask the question: how does one survive in our toxic world without becoming toxic oneself? This book proposes a radical idea: the solution is found within one's own self, a solution which unfolds when we set out on our own unique hero's journey. It is only when we jump ship and set out on our own course, purifying our hearts and embracing our divine humanness in the process, that we will learn love, compassion and tolerance for one another. Fortunately, we will not be asked to take this journey alone, for we will be accompanied by the god of love and desire, Eros, with his enthusiasm for life, appreciation of beauty, and his delicious pinch of naughtiness. And, as we become more acquainted with our new companion, we will learn of his masculine qualities; qualities necessary if we are to heal ourselves and our planet. Utilizing the evolving images of photographer Gary Laird, with their embodiment of the masculine, an energy always relevant to both men and woman, you will be asked to take your own journey, for this is not a passive read. You will be asked to walk through your purification, to explore the labyrinth of your psyche, and to honestly look in the mirror. The journey toward wholeness is never easy, it takes courage. It is difficult to explore the cracks and crevasses of our own psyches. If you choose to join us, to set sail to an unknown land, may you return home reborn into a more authentic Self - possessing a heart of gold.

A Century of Artists Books Riva Castleman 1997-09 Published to accompany the 1994 exhibition at The Museum of Modern Art, New York, this book constitutes the most extensive survey of modern illustrated books to be offered in many years. Work by artists from Pierre Bonnard to Barbara Kruger and writers from Guillaume Apollinaire to Susan Sontag. An important reference for collectors and connoisseurs. Includes notable works by Marc Chagall, Henri Matisse, and Pablo Picasso.

Rodin Auguste Rodin 1997 This classic exploration of erotic themes in Rodin's sculptures and drawings offers stunning visual and textual insight into the artist's work and ideas. More than 350 superbly reproduced images of selected sculptures and late drawings by Rodin document his obsession with sexuality, revealing the countless ways he depicted the subject: as a threat and challenge, but also as the source of all creative inspiration and passion. Augmenting these illustrations, ten essays by leading scholars explore the ramifications of Eros in Rodin's work, including such topics as the nature of the fragment, Rodin's relationship to the model, his religiosity, and his influence on his contemporaries as well as on future artists. In word and image, this volume deepens our understanding of the nineteenth century's premier sculptor.

The Prestel Dictionary of Art and Artists in the 20th Century Frank Zöllner 2000 "This full-color, one-volume dictionary provides a guide through the maze of twentieth-century art. Concise entries, all specially commissioned for this book, and many illustrated with works in color, cover the questions raised by encounters with modern art. Cross-references provide links between artists, concepts, and techniques, and a selected bibliography gives the latest and best books for further reading."--Rabat de la jaquette.

The Machine as Art/ The Machine as Artist Juliette Bessette 2020-10-21 The articles collected in this volume from the two companion Arts Special Issues, "The Machine as Art (in the 20th Century)" and "The Machine as Artist (in the 21st Century)", represent a unique scholarly resource: analyses by artists, scientists, and engineers, as well as art historians, covering not only the current (and astounding) rapprochement between art and technology but also the vital post-World War II period that has led up to it; this collection is also distinguished by several of the contributors being prominent individuals within their own fields, or as artists who have actually participated in the still unfolding events with which it is concerned
