Checking Out Nick Spalding 2018-03 Nathan James is young, successful and has the world at his feet. Unfortunately, he's also about to die--which ruins things somewhat. And now he's staring imminent death in the face, Nathan is having to rethink some of his life choices very hard. Checking Out A. G. Harrison 2021-07-19 The house was a small saltbox home with two floors. Wood planks across the front and wood shakes along the side and back, just like his wife wanted. The fire place was built in the middle of the house and has two openings, one on the main floor, where the wood that kept the fire going stood in a tee pee form. And an opening in the office to keep the room warm. It was something George refused he wanted, but his wife demanded. And still to this day George says in his night time prayers to his wife, "e;I am still using the fireplace. Just more then I will ever omit."e;

Check-in Check-out Gary K. Vallen 2003-10-15 For college, career, and university courses in Hotel and Motel Management and/or Front Desk Operations, usually offered in hospitality programs. Check-In Check-Out has been a leader in rooms management education and job-training for both two- and four-year educational institutions for over two decades. It has been used as a front-office text, an introductory text, a general resource, and a supplemental enrichment for courses in hotel accounting. Such versatility is possible because the book remains current, accurate, thorough, and professionally based. This first Canadian edition of Check-In Check-Out weighs each topic anew, matching it against the relevancy, accuracy, and importance of the times. Updated Canadian statistics and exhibits demonstrate the equally amazing growth that lodging has experienced in these past several years. Furthermore, the Canadian edition contains new material on the vibrant history of Canada's hotel industry and the impact of the importation of American hotel chains on the Canadian hotel landscape. Content has been added on Canadian success stories, such as Canadian Pacific and Four Seasons, to demonstrate the dynamic nature of the hotel industry in Canada and the foresight of its pioneers.

Checking Out Katherine Doggrell 2020-01-23 As one of the world's most established industries, the hotel sector has remained relatively unchanged and unchallenged for decades. Yet traditional hotels have recently come under increasing pressure on two major fronts: from disruptors in the sharing economy such as Airbnb, and by a rising wave of modern consumers who have become re-educated by social media and hotel comparison websites. Can this traditionally slow-moving sector reinvent itself or will it become increasingly marginalized? Is it time for traditional hotels to check out? Increasing numbers of hoteliers believe that traditional hotels are on the brink of a resurgence in popularity. Global hotel chains are catching up to modern trends - adding technologized curation and personalisation to their offerings. In Checking Out, Katherine Doggrell interviews key figures in the hotel industry and draws upon various case studies to explore the ways in which this traditionalist industry can remain relevant in the 21st century. The hotel 'experience' has been redefined, as guests now value fast Wi-Fi and mobile check-ins over room service and mini-fridges. Checking Out is an engaging investigation into the unprecedented challenges that face the hotel sector in the digital era and the strategies that are being employed by its leaders and innovators. Proceed to Check Out Alan Shapiro 2022-03-25 Award-winning poet Alan Shapiro offers a new collection of poems reflecting on mortality and finitude. Alan Shapiro's fourteenth collection of poetry, Proceed to Check Out, is a kind of summing up, or stock-taking, by an aging poet, of his precarious place in a world dominated by the ever-accelerating pace of technological innovation, political disruption, personal loss, and racial strife. These poems take on fundamental subjects—like the nature of time and consciousness and how or why we become who we are—but Shapiro presses them into becoming urgent and timely. Employing idiomatic range and formal variety, Shapiro's poems move through recurring dreams, the coercions of childhood, and the mysterious connections of mind and matter, pleasure and memory. They meet an abiding need to find empathy and understanding in even the most challenging places—amid disaffection, public discord, and estrangement. His grasp of contemporary life—in all its insidious violence and beauty—is distinct, comprehensive, and profound.
