Making Social Science Matter Bent Flyvbjerg 2001-01-15 Making Social Science Matter presents an exciting new approach to the social and behavioral sciences including theoretical argument, methodological guidelines, and examples of practical application. Why has social science failed in attempts to emulate natural science and produce normal theory? Bent Flyvbjerg argues that the strength of social sciences lies in its rich, reflexive analysis of values and power, essential to the social and economic development of any society. Richly informed, powerfully argued, and clearly written, this book opens up a new future for the social sciences. Its empowering message will make it required reading for students and academics across the social and behavioral sciences.

Social Innovation and Territorial Development Diana MacCallum 2016-04-01 The concept of social innovation offers an alternative perspective on development and territorial transformation, one which foregrounds innovation in social relations. This volume presents a broad-ranging and insightful exploration of social innovation and how it can affect life, society and economy, especially within local communities. It addresses key questions about the nature of social innovation as a process and a strategy and explores what opportunities may exist, or may be generated, for social innovation to nourish human development. It puts forward alternative development options which variously highlight solidarity, co-operation, cultural-artistic endeavour and diversity. In doing so, this book offers a provocative response to the predominant neoliberal economic vision of spatial, economic and social change.

Nuove generazioni e ricerca sociale per le politiche giovanili. Percorsi dell'Osservatorio sulle Culture Giovanili in Campania Stefania Leone 2012 I giovani sono una preziosa risorsa per la società: nel nuovo millennio, si ridefiniscono gli orientamenti e i programmi di intervento a favore dei giovani, dai documenti comunitari alle politiche giovanili regionali e locali. In un regime di instabilità dei progetti di vita, le istituzioni avvertono l'impellenza di agire sulla condizione giovanile per creare opportunità e strumenti di autonomia e, al tempo stesso, di partecipazione. Nel modello di rete delle politiche giovanili, insieme alle visioni di governance e di pianificazione territoriale, convergono prospettive di interconnessione e comunicazione per lo scambio di flussi e risorse informazionali, per la creazione di spazi progettuali, relazionali ed espressivi, per lo sviluppo della creatività quale motore di innovazione e di cittadinanza culturale. Ciò richiede un differente impegno metodologico che faccia della ricerca sociale uno strumento di osservazione integrato nella programmazione e negli interventi. Su queste basi, l'Osservatorio Regionale Culture Giovanili sviluppa in Campania approcci di ricerca-azione a supporto dei giovani, degli attori territoriali e del Settore Politiche Giovanili. Il lavoro esamina il metodo, gli studi, i progetti e le esperienze del primo biennio di attività.

Can Neighbourhoods Save the City? Frank Moulaert 2010-07-12 For decades, neighbourhoods been pivotal sites of social, economic and political exclusion processes, and civil society initiatives, attempting bottom-up strategies of re-development and regeneration. In many cases these efforts resulted in the creation of socially innovative organizations, seeking to satisfy the basic human needs of deprived population groups, to increase their political capabilities and to improve social interaction both internally and between the local communities, the wider urban society and political world. SINGOCOM - Social INnovation GOVERNance and COMMunity building - is the acronym of the EU-funded project on which this book is based. Sixteen case studies of socially-innovative initiatives at the neighbourhood level were carried out in nine European cities, of which ten are analysed in depth and presented here. The book compares these efforts and their results, and shows how grass-roots initiatives, alternative local movements and self-organizing urban collectives are reshaping the urban scene in dynamic, creative, innovative and empowering ways. It argues that such grass-roots initiatives are vital for generating a socially cohesive urban condition that exists alongside the official state-organized forms of urban governance. The book is thus a major contribution to socio-political literature, as it seeks to overcome the duality between community-development studies and strategies, and the solidarity-based making of a diverse society based upon the recognising and maintaining of citizenship rights. It will be of particular interest to both students and researchers in the fields of urban studies, social geography and political science.

Valutare l'impatto sociale: un percorso di ricerca-azione in Regione Umbria - e-Book CORVO LUIGI 2021-09-07 Il 2020 è stato l'anno che, secondo alcuni osservatori, segna la cesura definitiva fra il '900 e il nuovo secolo. Passerà alla storia come l'anno della pandemia globale Covid-19, ma il suo effetto non si esaurisce nella gravissima crisi sanitaria che sta riguardando tutti i paesi del pianeta. Lo shock sanitario, infatti, sta disvelando la fragilità economica e sociale di un modello di sviluppo basato sul frenetismo del profitto e sulla contrapposizione sistematica fra performance economico-finanziarie e benessere sociale ed ambientale. I Governi (quelli occidentali in modo particolare) stanno vivendo il dramma di un trade-off ai limiti di ogni perimetro etico, dovendo puntualmente ponderare le condizioni di equilibrio fra esigenze economiche ed esigenze sociali: ogni decisione che restringe le possibilità di consumo provoca effetti negativi sul PIL, ma al tempo stesso rallenta la crescita della curva dei contagi, quindi delle ospedalizzazioni, quindi dei decessi...

The International Handbook on Social Innovation Frank Moulaert 2013-01-01 The challenges of poverty and social exclusion cannot be fully resolved through conventional public sector policies and market-led innovation. The case studies in this Handbook capture some of the key success factors of socially innovative action in different socio-economic contexts. This Handbook will inspire readers as it highlights the creativity and commitment of diverse enterprises and movements working for social innovation. ð Anna Kajumulo Tibaijuka, Minister for Lands, Housing and Human Settlements, United Republic of Tanzania, and retired UN Under Secretary General, immediate former Executive Director of UN-HABITAT ð Social innovation may not be a new idea but it is clearly an idea whose time has come, not least because the traditional models of innovation ð narrowly framed technical models ð have run their course and no longer resonate in a world of societal challenges. This Handbook has two great merits ð it brings conceptual rigour to the debate and it provides compelling narratives of social innovation in practice. ð Kevin Morgan, Cardiff University, UK ÓIn an era where social innovation is re-emerging as an important policy framework for bringing social transformation, this volume is a significant contribution to the theory and practice of social innovation. The incremental discussion from concepts to theory to practice and then to social innovation research is supported by cases literally from all over the globe. It moves the discourse from isolated models of neighbourhood engagements and social enterprises, to a comprehensive, multidimensional approach combining needs, social relations and empowerment. A must read for academicians, learners, practitioners and policy makers alike. Ó Đ S. Parasuraman, Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai, India ÓSocial innovation is an important instrument for understanding how contemporary societies deal with social change and how social practices and policies intended to combat poverty and social exclusion are developed and implemented effectively. The Handbook offers a valuable contribution to the development of a clear, transdisciplinary and critical understanding of social innovation practices. The reader will find an in-depth discussion of the most important theoretical approaches to the concept and a thorough exposition of the epistemological and methodological framework for research in social innovation. The volume includes a number of interesting case studies in different areas of social change and issues of policy and governance. Ó Đ Enzo Mingione, University of Milano-Bicocca, Italy This enriching Handbook covers many aspects of the scientific and socio-political debates on social innovation today. The contributors provide an overview of theoretical perspectives, methodologies and instructive experiences from all continents, as well as implications for collective action and policy. They argue strongly for social innovation as a key to human development. The Handbook defines social innovation as innovation in social relations within both micro and macro spheres, with the purpose of satisfying unmet or new human needs across different layers of society. It connects social innovation to empowerment dynamics, thus giving a political character to social movements and bottom-up governance initiatives. Together these should lay the foundations for a fairer, more democratic society for all. This interdisciplinary work, written by scholars collaborating to develop a joint methodological perspective toward social innovation agency and processes, will be invaluable for students and researchers in social science and humanities. It will also appeal to policy makers, policy analysts, lobbyists and activists seeking to give inspiration and leadership from a social innovation perspective.

Selected Contemporary Challenges of Ageing Policy Łukasz Tomczyk 2017-11-23 This volume-"Selected Contemporary Challenges of Aging Policy"-is the most international of all published monographs from the series "Czech-Polish-Slovak Studies in Andragogy and Social Gerontology." Among the scholars trying to grasp the nuances and trends of social policy, there are diverse perspectives, resulting not only from the extensive knowledge of the authors on the systematic approach to the issue of supporting older people but also from the grounds of the represented social gerontology schools. In the texts of Volume VII interesting are both distinct and coherent elements presenting the role of local, regional and global policies in the prism of the countries from which the authors originate: the Czech Republic, Slovenia, Lithuania, Latvia, Poland, Slovakia, Italy, Turkey, and the United States. The chapters show a wealth of methodological approaches to the perception of social policy and its tools. In the texts there are issues related to the idea of active ageing, discrimination against older people in the workplace, comparability of solutions friendly to employment of older adults in the Czech Republic, Poland, and Slovakia as well as focused on the importance of educational forms (universities of the third age, senior clubs, folk high schools, and other non-formal solutions) determining an active life in old age. This monograph also attempted to answer the question regarding how to transfer the idea of intergenerational learning into the realm of practice. This issue complements the chapter on the implementation of intergenerational programs in institutions providing long-term care support. The book also outlines a public policy on ageing in the perspective of the changes over the last few decades (Slovenia) and the case demonstrating solutions to accelerate self-reliance as a key to active ageing (Turkey). We hope that seventh volume of our series will be an intellectual stimulus for further international research on change in social policy and will contribute to the dissemination of best practices as well as contribute to positive social change.

Ecoterritorialismo Alberto Magnaghi 2023-07-04 Ecoterritorialismo è la definizione matura del lungo percorso scientifico di ricerca/azione che la scuola territorialista italiana ha iniziato negli anni '90, mettendo il territorio e la sua patrimonializzazione al centro delle alternative ai processi di deterritorializzazione e di urbanizzazione omologante del pianeta messi in atto dalla globalizzazione economico-finanziaria. La fondazione nel 2011 della Società dei Territorialisti e delle Territorialiste ha rafforzato la multidisciplinarietà dell'approccio e la sua componente operativa con lo strumento della bioregione urbana. Il prefisso 'eco' denota la priorità attribuita alla questione ecologica, alle relazioni fra umani e non umani, vivente e non vivente, nei processi di rigenerazione dei luoghi del mondo che cerchiamo di attivare.

Sport, Welfare and Social Policy in the European Union Nicola R. Porro 2020-03-11 Sport is often seen as an indicator of the civic maturity of a community, an aspect of the rights of citizens to health, education and social integration. This book examines the relationships between participation in sport and physical activity, and welfare policies across Europe. It argues that the success of campaigns for the promotion of sport depend on the existence of dedicated welfare policies promoted by the European states and explores variations in cultural models and structures of governance across Europe. Addressing the function of supranational institutions such as the EU as well as voluntary networks, the book illuminates key issues in European societies such as migration, financial austerity and Brexit as they relate to sport policy. This is important reading for scholars and students in the fields of European sport and physical activity, sociology, political science and organisational analysis, as well as operators and managers of the sport systems involved in advanced training programmes.

Educational Jobs: Youth and Employability in the Social Economy Vanna Boffo 2015-11-27 In Europe the social economy employs almost 15 million workers. During the crisis years, unlike other sectors, it has often generated an increase in jobs. The aim of this comparative study is to investigate how to allow the supply and demand for young people to meet in the different types of social economy bodies. In particular, it concentrates on the problem of how to bring into line initial university training and the skills required by these organizations. The focus is placed on the varied family of training workers present in at least 75% of the organizations, whose professionalism is nevertheless rarely acknowledged. The papers proposed in this book try to identify the most suitable solutions at the level of curriculum, career development and accompanying measures, while drawing solutions from objective findings and not from training system needs or convictions.

Innovazione sociale nelle aree rurali del Mediterraneo Annarita Antonelli 2017-10-01 L'innovazione sociale è oggi considerata la chiave per affrontare molti dei grandi problemi emergenti. Ma come incoraggiarla in aree, come quelle rurali, dove tradizionalmente prevale la resistenza al cambiamento? Questo libro, frutto di una ricerca-azione con molti protagonisti delle comunità rurali mediterranee, descrive e analizza modelli organizzativi e idee di sviluppo che, facendo leva sulla peculiarità delle aree rurali e sulla loro identità, generano cambiamento legando innovazione e tradizione.

Nella seconda parte vengono individuati gli itinerari pedagogici di otto maestri pedagogisti dell'area emiliano-romagnola, che hanno con coraggio e lungimiranza contribuito a far crescere la scuola con il loro impegno e l'attuazione delle loro idee innovative. Nell'ultima parte, infine, vengono rappresentate alcune tendenze evolutive, in atto oggi nelle scuole, sia nel campo dell'innovazione didattico- pedagogica che in quella organizzativa e formativa.

La società cibernetica - Nell'era della conoscenza Francesco Bonanni 2022-11-18 La vita oggi è caratterizzata da un misto disordinato di mondo reale e virtuale, a livello sociale e a livello individuale; gli strumenti digitali sono ormai talmente diffusi e pervasivi che risulta impossibile stabilire delle regole condivisibili nel loro uso ed è molto difficile controllarne gli abusi nocivi e dolosi, a volte persino criminali. L'attuale emergenza pandemica, che continua da oltre due anni, evidenzia che esistono enormi potenzialità negli strumenti digitali nell'affrontarne le conseguenze del distanziamento sociale nei grandi agglomerati urbani del pianeta, ad esempio nello "smart working", nella "didattica a distanza", nella "telemedicina". È giunto il momento di cambiare paradigmi e visioni di vita quotidiana, al fine di rendere resiliente e proattiva l'intera società umana basandoci sulla conoscenza condivisa e dotandoci di luoghi e di strumenti integrati in modo sistemico e strutturato. Ciò significa pensare la società dell'intero pianeta come un unico grande organismo vivente che possiede già gli strumenti adatti alla sua sopravvivenza e convivenza, e quindi creare una cultura umanistica di tipo cibernetico, con strutture e funzioni che ne permettano l'autoregolazione e la resilienza continua su tutto il territorio umanizzato.

Sociologia della povertà educativa Sabina Curti 2022-11-04T00:00:00+01:00 La povertà educativa è un problema sociale che esiste da sempre, anche se solo di recente ha iniziato a trovare un posto nelle ricerche scientifiche e nel dibattito pubblico. In un'ottica sociologica e comparativa, questo volume intende fare il punto sui concetti, i metodi, le politiche e le pratiche messe in campo per affrontare il difficile rapporto tra educazione e disuguaglianze sociali. La riflessione teorica sviluppata dalle autrici prende le mosse da un progetto di ricerca-azione sulla lotta alla povertà educativa ed è rivolta a chi se ne occupa per motivi di studio e/o per interesse professionale e personale. Il testo è corredato di schede, note critiche e glossari, così da poter fornire al lettore tutti gli strumenti utili dal punto di vista concreto-operativo tanto sul piano socio-educativo quanto su quello politico-economico.

New Frontiers in Social Innovation Research Alex Nicholls 2015-09-18 This book is open access under a CC BY license. Interest in social innovation continues to rise, from governments setting up social innovation 'labs' to large corporations developing social innovation strategies. Yet theory lags behind practice, and this hampers our ability to understand social innovation and make the most of its potential. This collection brings together work by leading social innovation researchers globally, exploring the practice and process of researching social innovation, its nature and effects. Combining theoretical chapters and empirical studies, it shows how social innovation is blurring traditional boundaries between the market, the state and civil society, thereby developing new forms of services, relationships and collaborations. It takes a critical perspective, analyzing potential downsides of social innovation that often remain unexplored or are glossed over, yet concludes with a powerful vision of the potential for social innovation to transform society. It aims to be a valuable resource for students and researchers, as well as policymakers and others supporting and leading social innovation.

Alternative Food Networks Alessandro Corsi 2018-10-17 In recent years, Alternative Food Networks (AFNs) have been a key issue both in the scientific community and in public debates. This is due to their profound implications for rural development, local sustainability, and bio-economics. This edited collection discusses what the main determinants of the participation of operators – both consumers and producers – in AFNs are, what the conditions for their sustainability are, what their social and environmental effects are, and how they are distributed geographically. Further discussions include the effect of AFNs in structuring the food chain and how AFNs can be successfully scaled up. The authors explicitly take an interdisciplinary approach to analyse AFNs from different perspectives, using as an example the Italian region of Piedmont, a particularly interesting case study due to the diffusion of AFNs in the area, as well as due to the fact that it was in this region that the 'Slow Food' movement originated.

Policy Design in the European Union Risto Heiskala 2018-01-24 This edited collection addresses a paradox at the heart of the European Union: if it is a constantly enlarging empire of governance, how can almost thirty member states design policies as an administrative whole, whilst narrowly approaching all political issues from one economic point of view? The contributors to this collection approach this by studying knowledge production, policy formation and policy implementation in the union. The topics covered include the history of the union, its nature as an empire in the making compared to historical successors as well as current USA and China, formation of union level statistical data and policy documents, paradoxes of fiscal governance, social innovation policy, youth and education policy, energy policy and foreign policy with particular regard to Russia. The concluding chapter outlines five alternative future scenarios for the union extending from collapse and marginalization to the emergence of a federal empire. The book is essential reading for anybody interested in the EU, including students and scholars across a range of disciplines, including sociology, political science, international relations, economics, management studies, public and social policy, science and technology studies, and environmental policy.

Cooperare per l'innovazione sociale AA.VV. 2013-07-12T00:00:00+02:00 La ricerca-azione sulle cooperative sociali di tipo A toscane aderenti a Legacoop ha adottato un metodo che è stato anche contenuto. Lavorando sulle e con le cooperative, ha analizzato la loro condizione nell'ambiente di riferimento, evidenziando le criticità e creando le condizioni per sviluppare innovazione sociale sostenibile, a partire dalla distribuzione del modo abituale e consolidato di pensare e operare. La crisi economica ha fatto emergere la debolezza dei modelli di sviluppo e di protezione sociale, mettendo in discussione l'attuazione del principio di uguaglianza sostanziale dei cittadini. La cooperazione sociale, che ha tra le sue caratteristiche la riproduzione delle capability, ripensa pertanto le sue strategie sperimentando, anche attraverso Laboratori di innovazione sociale sostenibile, forme nuove di integrazione nell'offerta di servizi sociosanitari e un maggiore coinvolgimento delle persone (voice) e delle comunità, assumendosi la responsabilità del cambiamento.
